

Connecting the Dots for Public Health Nursing Leadership & Management

NCAPHNA Annual Conference 2017

Koury Convention Center, Greensboro, NC

Conference Agenda

Monday, November 6, 2017

6:00 pm Networking Session: Session will allow attendees to meet the Governing Board and learn the roles of different committees. Light refreshments will be served.

Tuesday, November 7, 2017

7:45 am Registration and Sign-in, light breakfast

8:30 am Call to Order, Introductions, Conference Review – Lynn Harmon, NCAPHNA President

9:00 am Managing Multiple Generations and Swimming in the Same Pond – Syvil Burke, RN

10:15am Break

10:30 am Syvil Burke – continued

11:30 am Recognition of new members and 2016 & 2017 graduates of Management and Supervision for PH Professionals

11:45 am Resolutions, Awards, Elizabeth Holley Scholarships, Management & Supervision Course Update

12:15 pm Lunch provided

1:30 pm Panel Discussion:

3:30 pm Break, visit with vendors

3:45 pm Red Cross - Donna M. Dorsey, MS, RN, FAAN

- Training that the Red Cross offers on sheltering.
 - Role of the Red Cross during a disaster and how they work local and state government.
 - Role clarification of the Red Cross Nurse in a shelter.

4:45 pm Adjourn

DISCLOSURES

The 2017 NCAPHNA Conference is being provided to you by the NC DPH Public Health Nursing and Professional Development Unit in collaboration with the North Carolina Association of Public Health Nurse Administrators.

CRITERIA FOR COMPLETION TO EARN CONTACT HOURS

To be eligible to receive CNE contact hours for attendance at the 2017 NCAPHNA Conference, the participant must:

- have registration paid in-full,
- attend 100% of the educational activity as evidenced by signing in, arriving on time, returning on time after each break, and staying until the end of each day, and
- complete the participant evaluation for each day attended before 11/30/17.

Connecting the Dots for Public Health Nursing Leadership & Management

NCAPHNA Annual Conference 2017

Koury Convention Center, Greensboro, NC

Wednesday, November 8, 2017

- 7:45 am Registration and Sign-in, quiche buffet breakfast
- 8:15 am Public Health Law Update: Your Most Frequently Asked Questions, Jill D. Moore, MPH, JD, Associate Professor of Public Law and Government, UNC School of Government
- 9:45 am Annual Update on Public Health Nursing, Phyllis Rocco, Chief Nurse, NC Division of Public Health
Reclaiming our role in the community and focusing on population health services
- 11:00 am Break
- 11:15 am Business Session: Lynn Harmon, presiding; voting, explanation of NCAPHNA Committees
- 12:00 am Installation of Officers; President's Award
- 12:15 pm Governing Board meeting

PLEASE CONSIDER THESE SCHOLARSHIPS WHEN PLANNING YOUR YEARLY GIVING

Elizabeth S. Holley Public Health Nursing Scholarship:

This scholarship is awarded to present Public Health Nurses currently licensed as a registered nurse in North Carolina for undergraduate or graduate study, certification or continuing education pursuing a nursing degree, administration education, or other pertinent public health career advancement. Applicants must have one year's experience in public health. Awards for public health training shall not be limited to study in a school of public health, but shall be for an academic program in an accredited educational institution which should advance the individual's competence in public health nursing. If you wish to contribute toward a scholarship for a public health nurse, please make the check payable to Elizabeth Holley PHN Scholarship Fund (EHSF).

Dr. Joy F. Reed Leadership Scholarship:

This scholarship is awarded to a current Public Health Nurse currently licensed as a registered nurse in North Carolina. The scholarship can be used for continuing education in pertinent leadership courses, trainings, conferences or certification programs. Applicants must be current members of either NCPHA or NCAPHNA. Full criteria for this scholarship may be found on the NCPHA website under the Nursing Section at www.ncpha.com. Joy Reed leaves a remarkable legacy as a leader in public health nursing both at the state and national level. This scholarship is intended to reward public health nurses who demonstrate the leadership potential and passion for public health illustrated by Joy Reed's career. If you would like to honor Dr. Reed by donating to the fund, please make the donation to NCPHA and designate the money for the Joy Reed Scholarship fund.

Continuing education credit will be provided through the Public Health Nursing and Professional Development Unit. The Public Health Nursing and Professional Development Unit, North Carolina Division of Public Health, is approved as a provider of continuing nursing education by the North Carolina Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.