

This is a self-study CNE activity so you can complete it at your own pace. It offers an opportunity to reflect on and assess your Public Health Nursing practice using the 2018 Quad Council Coalition's Community /Public Health Nursing (C/PHN) Competencies. The purpose of this self-study is to assist you in gaining knowledge so you can incorporate C/PHN Competencies into your individual nursing practice.

5.5 CNE contact hours will be provided to participants who attest to completion of the reading, provide answers to the 10 required self-reflection questions, and complete the course evaluation.

Author of CNE Activity: Susan Haynes Little, DNP, RN, PHNA-BC, CPHQ
QCC Competency Task Force Member and Liaison to the Council on Linkages Between Public Health Practice and Academia

Target Audience: All Public Health Nurses in all practice settings and positions

Learner Outcomes: Upon completion of this training, participants will:

- increase their knowledge of the 2018 QCC C/PHN Tiers, Domains, and Competencies;
- recognize behaviors they currently demonstrate in their practice that are reflected in the 2018 QCC C/PHN competencies;
- identify three competency gaps that they desire to master and integrate into practice; and
- write a SMART goal for each of the three competency gaps.

CNE for this activity will expire on 6/25/2020

The Public Health Nursing and Professional Development Unit, North Carolina Division of Public Health, is approved as a provider of continuing nursing education by the North Carolina Nurses Association, an accredited approver by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.

The planner and Author have no conflicts of interest to disclose.